Are you ready to Go Rving?

Summer vacation is just around the corner and right about now, most Americans are feeling the need for affordable family time and relaxation. An RV vacation is just what the doctor ordered! Economic stress won't last forever, but the bonds forged and memories made on an RV trip will.

RVs can offer you and your family one miraculous getaway after another. In this age of stressed-out, overscheduled families, Rving is the perfect way for family members to stay in touch with each other. Nothing quite encourages communication and shared activity like an RV getaway.

A new survey by Harris Interactive into which factors most influence RV purchase decisions shows that messages focusing on family togetherness and cost savings now resonate equally with potential RV buyers.

The survey offered insight about which benefits of Rving are the strongest purchase motivators. A strong proportion of potential future RV buyers said that these factors would make them more likely to buy:

- RVers save 27% to 61% on a typical family vacation.
- Couples who RV develop stronger bonds with each other.
- Rving allows you to be more physically active.

- Rving provides an escape from everyday pressure and stress.
- Kids who travel with their families by RV receive educational benefits.
- Traveling by RV reduces exposure to illnesses and other health risks.

The majority of past RV owners and potential future RV owners agreed that investing in an RV now will enable you to travel affordably and frequently in retirement.

Visit Delaware On Your Next Road Trip

Delaware boasts rivers, swamp lands, lakes, forests, grasslands and a more than respectable 90 miles of Atlantic coastline. When it's square mileage measure is taken into consideration, the "First State" tallies up on the small side, but Delaware still manages to pack a powerful punch in terms of natural attractions. Delaware campgrounds are close by many attractions, and Delaware RV camping resorts offer even more amenities.

This state's central region contains two National Wildlife Refuges. Bombay Hook is in Smyrna on the western shore of Delaware Bay and Prime Hook is just 22 miles southeast of Delaware's capital city of Dover. Both refuges were established to preserve coastal wetlands to serve as stopping points for migrating waterfowl.

The Atlantic Ocean forms this seashore's eastern border; its western edge is flanked by the waters of Rehoboth and Indian River Bays. Visitors find inviting beaches and two developed swimming areas with lifeguards on hand during summer months.

The southeastern coast is the home of a very popular vacation destination. It's no wonder that tourists and residents alike flock to this mecca of sand, sun, surf and non-stop watersports.

Southern Delaware is filled with main streets of yesteryear charm. Visit our historic seaside and riverside villages, once home to shipbuilding communities of years gone by. It's a perfect place to browse leisurely through a collection of antique shops, boutiques and even designer brand-name outlets. What's more, Delaware has the unique distinction of being home of TAX-FREE SHOPPING!

Delaware Seashore's shallow bays are popular spots for sailors, windsurfers, clam diggers and crabbers. A short nature trail offers interesting views of shorebirds' nesting colonies, surrounding bay islands and salt marshes.

RV Camping Supplies - Make Your Trip Comfortable By Having The Supplies In Place

RV camping is one of the most comfortable as well as interesting ways to spend your vacation. How to organize a small space such as an RV can sometimes be a tricky task. Knowing the layout of the unit will save time and energy by not having to dig through cabinets or flip up seat cushions to find something.

You just need to get your RV camping supplies in order, and you will be ready to enjoy the most fantastic camping adventures.

Most RV camping supplies ensure your comfort. For example, during the hot, sunny months of summer, an RV awning comes in handy. You can put up your camp chairs inside the shade of this awning and in fact, you can even use its protection when it rains. The RV window covers make your RV stay cool inside and thus are extremely useful.

You can make sure that you are not leaving behind or missing out on any important RV camping supplies if you download our printable travel checklist.

This checklist includes categories such as, cooking equipment, emergency gear, outdoor activities, recreation gear and personal items.

Don't forget to stop by and stock up on those needed camping supplies.

A Little RV Humor

Ode to an RV Parts Representative

I work behind the counter In an RV service store.
Sometimes I'm called a genius, sometimes I'm called much more.

I claim I'm no technician yet when the job goes sick.

The technician comes to me and asks: "What makes this darn thing tick?"

I'm supposed to know the numbers of bolts and nuts and gears,
For every darn RV that's made for forty years.

I'm an engineer and machinist and what not, oh my Lord!
I'm supposed to be an Edison combined with Henry Ford.

But life would be a pleasure and I'd grin from ear to ear,
If only the customer would tell me the model, make and year!!!!!!

(Please be kind to your Parts and Service Representative.
Sometimes they are having a bad day.)

Cooking on the Road

What a wonderful way to start your day of adventuring with you family and friends.

Breakfast Burritos

Ground sausage (mild or spicy)
1 dozen eggs
1 - 12 oz. jar of salsa
1/4 cup onion (chopped)
1/4 cup green bell pepper
1/4 cup red or yellow bell pepper
2 dozen flour tortillas (10 in.)
1 - 16 oz. bag of shredded Colby /Jack cheese

Cook sausage in a deep frying pan. Once the sausage is half cooked, put the onions and peppers in the pan. Whip eggs. Once the onions are transparent, put the eggs in and stir frequently. Once the eggs start to get stiff, add the salsa and cheese; stir in.

While that's cooking, put tortillas in the microwave for 2-3 min. (This will help them to roll up easy.) Once the filler is cooked, put a 1/4 cup in each tortilla and roll it up!
