RV Dealership is having a party and everyone is invited.

To encourage families to visit Delaware and vacation here Delaware Camping Center will be hosting a "Camping on Delmarva" event to be held at their dealership on Route 113 in Georgetown, DE from 10 am until 3 pm on Saturday, June 6, 2009.

There are endless opportunities to create wonderful memories for you and your family with many exciting choices of outdoor activities. You can go camping, biking, hiking, canoeing, kayaking, shopping, or relax at the beach. If you would like information to help plan your next day trip or vacation, "Camping on Delmarva" will be the ideal opportunity to access the information all in one place.

Join our party and talk with representatives from Cedar Creek Landing Campground, Delaware State Parks, Just Tow and Go RV Rental, Southern Delaware Tourism, Steamboat Landing RV Park and Marina, Tall Pines Campground, and Tall Pines Harbor Campground. They will be available to answer all your questions and show you why your next getaway should be in Delaware.

And, have you ever wondered what those recreational vehicles look like inside? Now is the time to find out. Delaware Camping Center staff will be available to show you around.

Look for the big, white tent. Free admission and parking for everyone. The Boys and Girls Club of Georgetown will be selling hot dogs and drinks as a fund raiser for their organization.
